1994–1995 PTA Today Index

Editor's note: This index covers the feature articles in each issue as well as "Report from Washington."

SEPTEMBER/OCTOBER 1994

Theme: Creating a Good Learning Environment

Principals and parents agree—self-esteem key to school success 5
by Susan E. Herzog

Do the 'write' thing: Encourage early writing at home 7
by Nancy T. Geary

Hearst winner puts children and parents first 9
by Stacey Moore

Put reading and writing at the heart of home life 10
by J.E.D. Stavick

Does your school science program nurture your budding scientist? 12
by Doug Lapp

Checklists for improving science education at your school 4

10 ways to help your child do better in math 15

Is your child a victim of a school bully? 16
by Frank J. Barone

Teach children to get back to school . . . safely! 18

Report from Washington:
Parents are children's most important teachers 20
by Christopher S. "Kit" Bond

NOVEMBER/DECEMBER 1994

Theme: Growing Up Healthy

Healthy Meals, Healthier Kids
Cutting the Fat From School Menus 4
by Kathy FioRito

Heart-Healthy Families 8
by Frederic J. Vagnini and Mary Jo Malone

Pesticides in Produce
What we can do to protect our children 10
by Susan L. Elderkin

Radon Q & A 13
by Chris Bayham

Inhalants: Beyond Sniffing Glue 15
by Annmarie Campbell

Health and Gun Violence 18
by Victoria Duran

Shaky Hands, Shaky Self-Image
Identifying the child with Essential Tremor 20
by Karen L. Busenbark

Sexual Harassment in Schools 22
by Irene Beck

Report from Washington
Working in concert for at-risk families 24
by Damian Thorman

JANUARY/FEBRUARY 1995

Theme: Celebrating Diversity

Raising the Rainbow Generation Schoolchildren and multiculturalism 4
by Darlene Powell Hopson and Derek S. Hopson, with Thomas Clavin

What to Tell Your Child About Prejudice and Discrimination 8

Gender Equity in Schools 11
by Irene Beck

The Good, the Bad, and the Confusing
A concise look at the quality of U.S. education 14
by Mary Lou Fuller, Sharon Branvold, and Ray Tapp

Where Did You Come From, What Did You See?
Using oral history and oral tradition to build understanding 17
by Blanche Glimps, Georgianna Simon, and Beverly Ashton

Captioning: New Tool for Inclusiveness 19

In Someone Else's Shoes
The National PTA promotes inclusiveness 21
by Lois Jean White

Report from Washington
The Need for the Education Infrastructure Act 23
by Carol Moseley-Braun

MARCH/APRIL 1995

Theme: Parenting: A Lifelong Commitment

Parenting: A Lifelong Commitment Growing along with our children 4
by Fred Rogers, National PTA Honorary Chairman

Getting Families Involved 7
by Richard Riley, U.S. Secretary of Education

Be an Advocate for Your Child 10
by Eileen Shultz

Families and Student Achievement 12
by Anne T. Henderson

Families and Change
Defining "family" in the nineties 26
by Donna Gardner

Sibling Squabbles 28
by Sharon L. Branvold

Mixed Messages
What are we telling our gifted girls? 30
by Joan Franklin Smutny

Report from Washington
Protecting Children: An agenda for the 104th Congress 32
by Thomas Birch

MAY/JUNE 1995

Theme: Nurturing Children's Creativity and Wonder

The Spirit of the Arts 4
by Jane Alexander

Showing Your Child the Wonder of Music 6
by Kitty Waikart and John J. Mahlmann

Does Music Make You Smarter? 8
by Frances Rauscher

Museums: Adventures in Learning 10
by Patricia O'Connell

Safe Art
When art materials pose a health risk to children 12

Celebrating 25 Years of the PTA Reflections Program ..... center insert
by Joan Kuersten

Report From Washington
Reducing TV Violence: It's Time to Stop the Mayhem 25
by Kent Conrad

The Arts are Good Business 28
by Richard S. Gurin

A Parent's Guide to the National Standards for Arts Education 30
by Kathleen Welling